

eIntegrity for members

May 2020

eIntegrity is a 24/7 online learning resource. Members of The Institute of Chiropodists and Podiatrists (IOCP) and The College of Foot Health (COFH) have access to the following learning modules free of charge as part of their membership with the associated body:

1. Statutory and Mandatory Training
2. Dementia e-Learning Programme
3. Antimicrobial Resistance

The following is a guide and support for using eIntegrity.

Subscription, login and support

- Subscription/sign-up offered on a quarterly upload basis.
- Your consent to using the service should be sent to secretary@iocp.org.uk
- Members can contact enquiries@eintegrity.org with any specific questions on the licences.
- Login details will be sent directly to the email address provided by applicants. The email is automatically generated and as such can land in spam folders and members should check these prior to contacting you or eIntegrity for access. Login details will only be re-sent for exceptional circumstances.
- Members need to login as soon as possible when they receive the email. The link expires within 7 days.
- Support website <https://support.e-lfh.org.uk/> Can also be used to reset passwords etc.

Terms and Conditions

- When members login, they will need to accept the Terms and Conditions; <https://portal.eintegrity.org/terms>. There is a contact us link in the Terms; https://portal.eintegrity.org/contact_us

Certificates and Accreditation

- There are certificates for each of the programmes and also each module within a programme.
- The Statutory and Mandatory programme requires the completion and passing of the assessment to generate a certificate for each module. For the Dementia and AMR programmes, each learning session has self-assessment sessions and the certificates are of completion.
- Certificate can be used as evidence of learning and for CPD. Accreditation depends on the professional body.
